

TEXAS TOWNS

MARLIN

Marlin, Texas, April 29.—We thank our Heavenly Father for two-fold blessings on Sunday. First, He allowed the soldiers to gather at the various churches in the morning. Second, in the afternoon He poured down a Heavenly rain that was much needed. The city was thrown into a gloom of sadness when the news of Aquilla Lora getting drowned in Sandy Creek on the 27th. He and a parcel of his schoolmates left to spend San Jacinto Day fishing. After fishing a while they went in bathing. Young Lora went beyond his depth and was drowned. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family. Mrs. Fannie L. Hightower, Shreveport, La., is much improved after taking the baths. The reporter has returned from Waco where he had gone to hear the much honored Roscoe Simmons.

TEMPLE

Temple, Texas, April 29.—After undergoing an operation on Saturday, Mrs. Florence Jackson died Monday at her home. Funeral services held Wednesday evening from Mt. Zion Baptist church. Rev. J. C. Curtis officiated. She is survived by a husband, father, mother, sister, two brothers and a host of friends. After a long illness, Miss Rosy Lockhart died at her home April 15th. The Modern American of Houston, Texas, was organized last Wednesday at K. of P. Hall, with twenty-one members. Officers will be elected at next meeting. The Order was set up by Hon. P. L. Artis, Supreme Director. Mr. P. Elum returned from Brenham last week, bringing with him, his newly wed bride, formerly Miss Simmie Lockhart. Mrs. Elora Hornsby, sister of bride, R. Rozelle, Mr. and Mrs. L. Calkins and others witnessed the wedding. The Temple High school girls, accompanied by the Colored High school band, and a majority of teachers, returned from Waco last Thursday, where the Temple High School girls vs Waco High school girls, played a fast game of basketball, which resulted in a tie, scores 16-16.

PONTA

Ponta, Texas, April 29.—Sunday school at all the churches Sunday was well attended. Preaching at Mt. Olive Baptist church. Rev. Jenkins filled his pulpit at the noon hour, and delivered one of his powerful sermons to a well crowded house. Services were also held with Mt. Hebron Presbyterian church. The reports have not been received from this point, as the weather was not favorable. A nice rain fell here at 5 p. m. Sunday and filled a good space for the farmers as they were needing rain badly at this time. Many have ceased to plant the remainder of the ground being to hard on account of the ground being to hard already. We are glad to announce that the little scare about the pink-bell worm was not necessarily true, as we find that the farmers will plant their crops as usual this year. We are glad to say that Mrs. Anna Bell Cleaver, who has been very sick lately is much better. Mrs. Adeline Stewart is convalescent. Mrs. Mary Vales who has been very ill is also reported improving. Every body is looking forward to a box spring which will be given at the Iron Hill school house Saturday night May 1st. Mr. John Johnson of Jacksonville, was in Ponta Saturday on business.

CUNY

Cuney, Texas, April 29.—Sunday school and church Sunday was well attended. Rev. J. C. Brown was at his post and preached an excellent sermon. Services were raised out Sunday evening and night. The members of the Business League enjoyed a nice banquet given on last Wednesday night. It was a very enjoyable occasion. Prof. G. W. Crouch and wife visited Cuney this week. Prof. Crouch made a very interesting speech on Farming; also the Progress of the Negro. Mr. Geo. H. Benson of Jacksonville, is a frequent visitor in Cuney. Rev. W. B. Bailey filled his appointment at Pleasant Hill Sunday. Mrs. H. L. Price, Mr. B. F. Blaine, Mr. W. C. Price, Miss S. D. Armon, Mrs. Bishop Sneed made business trips to Jacksonville last week. Miss Frankie Hamilton, who has been visiting in Calvert returned home yesterday. Mr. Jno. Bragg was out of the city this week on business. Mr. E. Ford was out of town this week on business. Mr. E. Ford, the telephone man, is installing new telephone every day. Rev. W. B. Bailey is doing a good business with his Cafe and market. Mr. Miller of Ironton was in the city this week. Mr. Calvin Billingsley who has been sick for quite a while passed away and was buried this week. Mr. Merrill Hill who has been in Kemp is at home this week. Miss Mary Pendleton is visiting relatives and friends in Cushing this week. Mr. Lewis Walker has returned after an extended stay in Grapeland. Mrs. Ada Kissett, who has been confined to bed is able to be out again. Hon. H. L. Price has been suffering with neuralgia but is able to be out again. We are blessed with heavy showers this week. For The Dallas Express see J. L. Price, reporter and agent.

LUFKIN

Lufkin, Texas, April 29.—Quite a number of Brave Knights and Calanthis of Jacksonville Lodge No. 109, left for Diboll Sunday by the H. E. and W. T. R. R., occupied a special car. Rev. J. H. Merriack of Sunday Side was the week-end guest of his wife last week and delivered a strong sermon at 11:30 a. m., at the C. M. E. Church of which Rev. M.

D. Sales is pastor. Sunday night Rev. M. D. Sales was accompanied by Rev. W. Q. Hunter, P. E. of Houston District and Rev. Bradley of Cedar Grove in which Rev. Bradley filled the stand. Mr. Jas. Vitely, M. Berry and others left for Houston Sunday. Dr. W. T. Reagor is in the city. Miss Beulah Reagor returned from Maunig last week—reports a splendid success in her music school. Mr. Esley Patton left for Dallas Sunday. Mrs. Lillie A. Scott made a business trip to Moscow last week in which she was connected to the Courts of Calanthe at that place.

ROCKWALL

Rockwall, Texas, April 29.—A good rain fell here on the 24th and 25th instant, which was of great benefit to growing crops. Rev. G. W. Nelson was at his post but on account of rain services were hindered. The Oil Mill was consumed by fire at this place on the 23rd. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mrs. B. Thomas was in Royce last week on business. Rev. P. M. Wiley of Dallas is in the city.

GREENVILLE

Greenville, Texas, April 29.—Services were good at all churches. Miss Rosie Brooks left for Chicago. Miss Litter Grissom is visiting relatives and friends in Denison. Mr. Chas. White and Miss Rachel King are to be married May 3rd. When you want the Express see George Byrd. Miss Jennie Roe of Stephenville is visiting her father. Mr. Shain Brooks died at the home of his brother Ben Brooks. The George Byrd Club will meet at the residence of Mr. Nelson Brooker. A mass meeting took place at Warren Chapel M. E. Church April 28th. Mr. Jake King left Thursday for Chicago where she will join her husband. Miss Inez Stephens is visiting her parents.

Miss Maggie James died Thursday night and her body was shipped back to her home for burial. Mr. W. M. Statin and also Miss Emma Seas were married this week. Mr. Alvin Crockett was here to see his mother on visit from Tulsa, Okla. Rev. Strong had a nice meeting at Jerusalem last week.

PILOT POINT

Pilot Point, Texas, April 29.—Our entire township was rejoicing so over the rain that came Saturday and Sunday that no services were held at either of the churches. John L. the one year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hill Finch, died on the 19th. Mrs. Homer Hunt was called to Tulsa, Okla. Thursday to attend the bedside of a sick sister. Mrs. M. E. Huntley and Mrs. Ruby Floyd have returned from Dallas. Rev. J. S. M. Alexander have a Five Passenger Maxwell. Mrs. Rose Holstein is visiting relatives in Sherman. Rev. A. L. W. Wilhite, pastor of the A. M. E. church will leave Tuesday for St. Louis to attend the Convention. Rev. J. Sams will fill his pulpit in his absence. Miss Ladonia Mass is visiting in Gainesville. Sick listed: Mrs. Lou Harris, A. R. Flagg and Levi Wright. Rev. W. H. Varner filled his new appointment at Pomey Sunday. Mr. Luke Caldwell has returned from a two months stay in Terrell. A night school has been instituted by Prof. Love. On the first night 17 old and middle aged took advantage of the opportunity and enrolled. Mr. Joe Skinner is spending a few days with his son in Sherman.

The ladies of Progressive Club met at Mrs. Mattie Washington's. Quite a number of ladies responded to the roll call. Usual routine of work was held. The club has some helpful movements on which will be announced later. Mrs. Lula Foster, the honored guest was introduced and made timely remarks, after which the meeting was turned over to the hostess, who served a delicious menu.

PLANO

Plano, Texas, April 29.—Sunday school was poorly attended at both churches on account of rain. There was a nice surprise party given at the school house in Miss Sunday May's room. She was called in Mrs. Russell's room and when she returned to her surprise the room was decorated and fruits of all kinds and ice cream by the gallons were waiting to be served. Miss Donie Davis is visiting in Denison. Mrs. Johnson of McKinney and daughter were the guests of Mrs. Willie Moore. The Washington family are improving nicely. Mr. Millie Stimpert is on the sick list. Mr. Rufus Herrod and wife are on the sick list. See Mrs. Augustus for the Express. Read the Express and keep up. The C. M. E. Missionary Society will be visited by a lady from each charge in the Dallas district the 7th of May to arrange for a great meeting that will be held in Dallas in September.

RUSK

Rusk, Texas, April 29.—The high winds we have had for the past two or three weeks have dried the ground out very much. Saturday at noon a slow rain began to fall which was a treat to the farmers, truck growers and gardeners. Rev. J. H. Polk preached for Rev. Garner, Sunday. Mr. Milton Pye and Miss Bertha McKnight were married Sunday at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride. Rev. Sam Love officiated. Quite a number of Rusk people went to Alto, Sunday to the wedding. Mr. Lige Sartin of Beaumont, Texas, was in Rusk, again. Mr. Earl Pye, Mr. Milton Pye and Rev. Sam Love on their way to Alto, Sunday, their car turned over 4 miles from Rusk, no one seriously hurt. The Kennedy Black Cats are now on the field and are now able to play any team that calls on them. Mr. A. Hall was badly hurt Monday when the team he was driving ran away.

MART

Mart, Texas, April 29.—We were blessed with a down pour of rain; however, many came through the mud to church. Sunday school and services were good at all churches. The revival has closed at Rocky Creek and Rev. Brown has returned to his home in El Paso, Texas. Thirty-six were added to the church.

GILMER

Gilmer, Texas, April 29.—Mrs. Lewis Cass, an aged brother of Glenwood died in Gilmer on his return from the District conference of the A. M. E. church last Thursday night which he was a delegate. Excelsior Lodge raised six square men and also initiated one. Adding about 15 more last Tuesday night to her number. Quite a number is reported sick in and around town.

Bruce high school closed last Friday. Same teachers were elected this being the 3rd lesson. Rev. S. H. Howard pastor of Gilmer, was at his post Sunday. Rev. E. Prince and H. M. Jones also. Grand Master, H. G. Gorse visited the three linkers here last week. He impressed them of their duty and interest concerning the safety of the Grand Lodge. Fishing season is on. B. Price has returned from a visit to relatives at Henderson. Miss Dery accompanied her home. Mr. Geo. Middleton, wife, sister, Miss Blackman also were in town last week looking after the interest of her school. Rev. H. Williams was in Pittsburg last week. Excelsior Lodge No. 10 has taken on new life and is preparing to remodel their hall. Mr. Geo. Hale has moved into his new building.

ITASCA

Itasca, Texas, April 29.—Notwithstanding the inclement weather Sunday school was fairly well attended. Some of the teachers were late however, its good to be there though late. The rain hindered the attendance of the B. Y. P. U. as well. The lesson was taught by the President. At night the Mission Sisters rendered a short program, after which Rev. Bro. Moore preached for us. Wednesday night April 21st, Mrs. M. J. Sanford, principal, with her room and a few other friends spent a pleasant day at White Rock picnic. Miss Orr with her room had their picnic Friday. On next Friday, Mrs. A. E. Carter with the kindergarten and Class D. of the S. S. will have their picnic. Master Robert Sedberry celebrated his fifth birthday Friday evening. Quite a number of his mates were present. All spent an enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis, Mrs. A. E. Carter, Gladys and Kathleen McGinnis motored to Grand View Sunday evening. Mrs. Mable Anderson made a flying trip to Fort Worth Friday evening bringing her little brother back with her. Mr. Briscoe Reed and Mrs. N. Kahn were quietly married Wednesday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Sparks, the bride's sister. The carpenters are moving right along on the parsonage and it will not be long before our pastor and family will be in our midst. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Standifer made a flying trip to Valley Mills, Wednesday morning, the home of Mr. Steve Robertson was utterly destroyed by flames—only a few things were saved.

HONEY GROVE

Honey Grove, Texas, April 29.—The weather was somewhat inclement Sunday but Rev. Will Higgs, assisted by Rev. Marion Roumouere filled their regular appointment. Honey Grove and Boham crossed back Friday at the High School park scores 7 to 3 in favor of Boham. Mrs. Edna Aldridge who has been seriously sick for the past week is reported better. Mr. Sampson Bagby and Miss Nina Loggins were quietly married at the home of the bride Wednesday evening. Mr. Morse Reynolds is all smiles over that 12 pound boy that arrived last week at his home. Master Sam Dalton is general motorman at the Boham House Truck Company. Mrs. Leanna Floyd who has been sick for some time is able to be out. Mr. Calvin Nicholson is erecting a building on the T. H. Nicholson property South of T. and P. Station where he will open a garage for the public. Mrs. Carrie Hickman is a welcome visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Moore. Mr. Reuben Childs died April 19th and his remains laid beneath the soil in Hill Addition Cemetery.
